

The North Kansas City Business Council

Presents its second in a new series of

Business Focus Forums:

Healthcare Law: What it Means for You

Tony Drummond, an independent insurance broker who specializes primarily in employee benefits and group insurance, will present a “nuts & bolts” review of the recently passed Healthcare reform act. He will review how the plan actually works and detail specific ways employers and individuals will be affected. The presentation is intended to provide helpful ideas on what employers need to consider as 2014 approaches. It will also address many of the significant unknowns, inherent risks, and challenges with the implementation of the Bill.

Tuesday, August 23, 2011
7:30 a.m. – 9:00 a.m.

Bridge View Hall
1041 Burlington, North Kansas City, MO

Coffee, Orange Juice, Breakfast Pastries and Fruit will be available.
