

The North Kansas City Business Council

Presents its third in a new series of

Business Focus Forums:

Crime Free Business with Officer Brian Lawrence

As part of an ongoing crime reduction effort in our community, the North Kansas City Police Department is pleased to announce the introduction of Crime Free Business. North Kansas City is currently one of 14 cities across the nation participating in the study which is intended to suggest the best practices to reduce the incidence of robberies and workplace violence for businesses at risk.

Businesses who attend this session will complete the first of three steps required to be certified as Crime Free. The program is provided free of charge by the North Kansas City Police Department.

Tuesday, October 25, 2011
7:30 a.m. – 9:00 a.m.

Bridge View Hall
1041 Burlington, North Kansas City, MO

Coffee, Orange Juice, Breakfast Pastries and Fruit will be available.

Free to NKCBC member business owners, managers, or staff members, and their guests.

RSVP by noon Friday, Oct. 21 so we know how many to plan for!

Thank you to our sponsor for this event:

Bridge View Hall

For more information contact:
North Kansas City Business Council
816-472-7700
www.nkcbusinesscouncil.com
ltate@nkcbusinesscouncil.com